The Senior Class

Grantham High School

Goldsboro,
North Carolina

A time we each looked forward to.

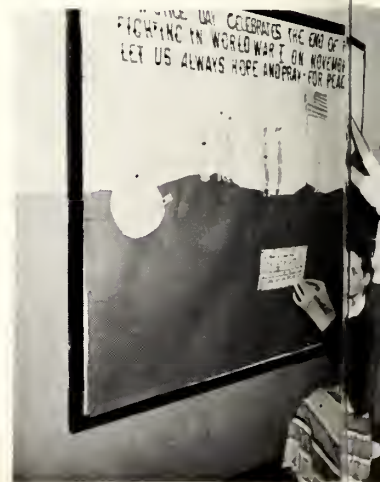

Adding a bright spot to a school day through music.

A chance to try our hand at acting.

Showing an original touch of our pages come to mind. Through the years many others, too numerous to list, will often be in our thoughts.

In years to come as we open the covers and turn these pages, may fond memories of the lasting friendships, gay occasions, favorite classes, and varied activities fill our thoughts again with gladness and happiness.

Food for the body as well as the mind.

Learning a skill that will be very useful now and in the future.

Preparing for many hours of reference work.

f our own.

Annual Staff

Second Year Typing Class

We are very grateful to Mrs. Lowdermilk and the second year typing class for their excellent work on the typewritten material in our annual. We realize that without their help, we could not possibly have met our deadline.

Dedication

In expressing our appreciation to an accomplished teacher, we, the Seniors, dedicate the 1959 GRANNAWAYNE to a true and sincere friend, Mrs. Joyce Bradley. We shall always remember her ready wit, critical understanding, keen judgment, and cheerful disposition. Even though she has been with us a short time, her influence has been a strong factor in our thinking and considering seriously the field of endeavor we would like to pursue. She has emphasized the necessity to search for knowledge and to plan for the future. She has taught us to be painstaking and accurate; thus encouraging the same fine quality of work as she herself does. It gives us great pleasure to have this opportunity to show our gratitude because she has tried to make our Senior year a highly successful one.

To our principal, Talton W. Jones, we affectionately give heartfelt thanks for his aid and assistance in publishing the 1959 GRANNAWAYNE. Without his interest, this annual would not have been possible. We will always have fond memories of his guiding influence during our high school days. His appealing way of stirring within us our moral obligations to do the correct thing has made a lasting impression. Always we have found him considerate of both his teachers and students. Always we have found him sympathetic to our problems and interested in our development. He is just a thoroughly fine fellow—a man of high character and honor, tireless and unselfish in the execution of his duties.

MRS. MABEL D. MOZINGO

She has been an inspiration to many students and adults. Evidence of her tact, foresight, and judgment has made a lasting and profound impression on all whom she has taught and with all whom she has worked. Her conscientious and imaginative service as elementary librarian characterizes her spirit of striving to make Grantham School outstanding. We admire her ability, respect her quiet dignity, and marvel at her unselfishness. Her guiding influence and irreproachable character are qualities for which we give her special recognition.

Special Recognition

MRS. LOUISE SPAIN

She has been a wonderful and thoughtful friend to all of us for many years. Never does she refuse her talented help to any student or teacher who seeks it. Her willingness to sacrifice her own needs to help us with music and programs is greatly appreciated by everyone. We love her for her kindness and her efforts to help everyone. For these many reasons we give special recognition to her.

Class History

I am sure that as we, the Seniors of 1959, walk down the aisle together for the last time, our thoughts will turn backward to the day in September, 1955, when we first entered high school. The 57 excited and highly enthusiastic members of our class were greeted by Mr. Leroy Pittman and Mr. Malcolm Bender, our homeroom teachers. Soon we became accustomed to the high school routine and elected our class officers who were: President, Bill Jinnette; Vice President, Annette Britt; and Secretary and Treasurer, Alice Strickland. Our extracurricular activities included F.F.A., F.H.A. and basketball, which we planned to continue for the rest of our high school days. To conclude our freshman year, we enjoyed a weiner roast at Herman Park.

Thoroughly acquainted with the routine of high school, we returned as Sophomores and were greeted by our new teachers, Mrs. Jacquelyn Bryan and Miss Evelyn Davis. Although quite reduced in number, we gained Marjorie Daniels, Clara Hare and, Helen Aswell to fill the vacancies. Our officers for this year were: President, Jerry Wadsworth; Vice President, Dwight Laws; Secretary, Betty Thigpen; and Reporter, Tommy Mozingo. We enjoyed another class party at Herman Park.

Older and wiser, we took our places as Juniors under the guidance of Miss Evelyn Davis and Mr. D.J. Robinson who led us through many activities. We then realized that our senior year and graduation were not far ahead. During our first class meeting we elected our class officers who had to assume much responsibility. They were: President, Charles Weaver; Vice President, Betty Thigpen; Secretary and Treasurer, Bill Jinnette; and Reporter, Carroll Ingram. To fill the vacancies made by those whom we had lost, came J.R. Best and Theresa Kornegay. It was after long hours of hard work that we proudly presented our Junior Play "Hillbilly Wedding." Also highlighting our Junior year was the Junior-Senior Banquet at which our theme was "Outer Space." Both of these events are ones that we shall long remember. A gay occasion was our class party at Goldpark Lake.

On September 2, 1958, forty-three dignified and happy seniors took their place under the guidance of Mrs. Doris Jones and Mrs. Joyce Bradley. We realized that our long awaited goal in high school was almost within reach. Soon after school started we elected class officers, who were President, Charles Weaver; Vice President, Gail Grantham; Secretary, Ann Laws; Treasurer, Evelyn Edwards, and Historian, Betty Thigpen. Work was begun on the annual, and we all worked hard selling ads and pens, to help the staff in the preparation of it. Marriage vows were spoken this year by LaVerne Best, Phyllis Jernigan, Jean Sutton, Margie Smith, Glenn Futrell and Jerry Tyner. One of the most memorable days was the day we received our long-awaited class rings.

Time is flitting fast; and now in December we realize that very special occasions lie in store for us. Attending class parties, looking forward to the senior play, and being the guests of the Juniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet, are events to which we look forward.

As we proceed to our places to receive our diplomas, may our moments of reverie be of happiness and sadness. With unforgettable memories we will leave Grantham High and our youthful, gay life to find our places in the world of tomorrow.

PROPHECY

The time is May, 1969, and it is vacation time for me. I am, incidentally, THERESA KORNEGAY, secretary to president of the General Assembly of the United Nations. During my vacation, I plan to board a jet airliner and fly to Central Airport in Grantham, N. C., a growing metropolis, to see my classmates, whose friendships I have greatly missed since 1959. The last time I saw them, someone said there were no signs of success in their hearts and minds. But do you know—

ANN LAWS is now reservationist for TWA Airlines.

MATTIE WILKINS, R. N., now serving at Grantham Community Medical Center, is a great help to her community.

JERRY WADSWORTH, the high school math shark, has completed a design for a new Lockheed Jet Airliner.

BETTY GRAY KORNEGAY is now secretary to Investor SHELTON GRANTHAM.

SALLIE ANN BEST, a senior accountant, is checking on the expenditure records of Grantham Loan Company President GAIL GRANTHAM.

BETTY THIGPEN, having graduated from ECC, is instructing the small fry at Grantham, in the 3R's.

CAROLYN DENNING, MARY ALICE DENNING, and JENNY PORTER, having given up their main "goal" in life, are working off their housewifely ambitions as waitresses at Hotel Goldsboro.

MARJORIE DANIELS, who would like to give you that stylish hairdo, has opened a modern beauty salon in Grantham.

SHELTON WILLIAMS and RAY MERCER, our hometown boys, have opened a gas station on Main Street. Go by and fill up.

GENEVERETTE WISE and CLARA HARE inherited a fortune and have retired from their secretarial duties and are on the way to Hawaii to pursue their dream. Incidentally the dream is big "game" hunting.

DARTHA WESTBROOK is punching buttons on a robot in the tax department of the Pentagon Building in Washington, D. C.

JOE STRICKLAND is after a seat in the House of Representatives. His campaign manager is none other than CHARLES WEAVER, who led us through so many battles in high school.

EVELYN EDWARDS, a top chemist, has discovered a new chemical, "brainic" acid. Some say that it really works!

Those girls who have learned the sound of "Take a letter, please." are LENA JOYNER, JOYCE KENNE, ALICE STRICKLAND, and ANNETTE BRITT. They are all employed by TOMMY MOZINGO and RUSSELL ROBINSON co-owners of the huge Grantham Ball Point Pen Manufacturing Company.

I visited WGHS, Grantham, N. C., and was just in time to hear announcer STANLEY HARTLEY introduce the Heartbreak Duet composed of LUBY BRYAN, and J. R. BEST.

JOANNE JERNIGAN is manager of the Dodgers, but her own manager hopes she will retire soon and manage their own team.

As I drove through Grantham, I saw County Agent JERRY TYNER explaining "how to put corn in the ground" to farmer GLENN FUTRELL. Didn't F.F.A. help, Glenn?

NELLIE MAC BRYAN is still defending the title of "Most Athletic" which she won in high school. See her play basketball on television tonight.

BETTY JANE THORNTON has adopted Georgia as her home state. You will remember she attended Berry College.

I stopped at television station WGVC in time to see the hilarious BILL JINNETTE make his debut as star of "People are Funny." The actress, JOYCE CASEY welcomed him.

Happily pursuing their homemaking duties, are HELEN ASWELL and JEAN SUTTON.

BARBARA BEST has actually refrained from giggling and has become navyman JAMES BARNES' social secretary.

Advertising managers BOBBY RAYNOR and LYNWOOD PRICE of the Grantham Daily News are currently soliciting ads for the annual graduation edition.

My vacation seemed so short; never have I enjoyed chatting and visiting with so many. Now, back at work, I find that I shall have to diet. It will be well worth it though, in exchange for all that food and relaxation. Um, um.

I, ALICE STRICKLAND, leave my thoughtfulness for others to those who need that quality.

I, JAMES BARNES, leave my love for a good basketball game to Jacqueline Best and Edward Grantham.

I, SHELTON WILLIAMS, leave my wandering ability to Eddis Britt, Kenneth Edwards, and Earl Holland.

I, BOBBY RAYNOR, will my ability to speak my mind to Kenneth Harrell.

I, STANLEY HARTLEY, leave my loudness in study hall to Geraldine Best and Donald Raynor.

I, BETTY THIGPEN, leave my love for parties to George Brock and James Summerlin.

I, BETTY JANE THORNTON, leave my artistic ability to Geraldine Carroll.

We, RAY MERCER and RUSSELL ROBINSON, leave our slow ways to Ronald Radford and Arthur Jackson.

I, JOE STRICKLAND, leave my love for Mount Olive to Faye Thornton.

I, JERRY TYNER, leave my "worrying the teacher" ability to Phillip Weaver.

We, JEAN SUTTON, HELEN ASWELL and LYWOOD PRICE, will our Senior books and desks to Alice Westbrook and Lynn Sutton.

I, JERRY WADSWORTH, leave my position as manager of the teams to any underclassman that is smart.

I, JOYCE CASEY, will my talent for music to Doris Denning.

I, JOYCE ANN KEENE, leave my fair and flawless complexion to anyone less fortunate.

I, MARJORIE DANIELS, shall keep my ability earned in driver training class, hoping to prevent any hazard later.

I, TOMMY MOZINGO, leave my "happy-go-lucky" ways to Gilford Laws.

Earl,

We have enjoyed being in your classes this year and last. If it wasn't for you, Huby, Glenn, Bill and Jerry last year I do not know what we would have done. Because it looked as though you all were blamed for everything that we did. I will never forget the day we wrote that letter to Mr. N. J. Roberson and you all had to go to the office the next morning for it. Also when we tore the Bulletin Board down and they got you all for that too. What gets we have been. I would like to take this chance ~~to~~ ^{to} "Thanking" you ~~for~~ for taking our punishment. I think we have reformed now because we have stopped all our bad habits that we had last year and took up some more. Best of luck to a deserving person. Don't forget the three stooges

Dearest Earl,

As I have said many times, it is very hard to put my thoughts into words. Especially when I'm writing and talking about you.

First, let me begin by saying that you are a wonderful person in my life. You are always there when I need you and your understanding. I love you so much, that if something would happen, I would hate to think of the results. Although we have had "our" misunderstandings and mishaps, we have always been able to get our problems solved. I trust in you and believe that we were meant for each other. I sincerely wish that our love will continue forever, as strong as it is now.

I am so thankful for all you have done for me, for without you, I feel I would have been lost.

I can't imagine what school will be like next year without you being there. Because of my promise I made, and our future plans together, I'm going to make the best of it. It probably won't be difficult though, because I really have something to look forward to.

I think of you constantly and pray that we will have a happy and prosperous future together.

Love always,
Barbara
